Say it with more love,
after yesterday's meeting with Baba,

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

Om Shanti

दादी जानकी जी

Yesterday we said Om Shanti as well, today we said Om Shanti as well, isn't there lot of difference (between the way we said yesterday and today)?

दादी जानकी जी

Yesterday it was “Baba is coming”, today Baba arrived. Wonderful Baba!

दादी जानकी जी

Baba keeps saying “Wah my child, Wah!”
and we keep saying “Wah Baba, Wah!”
that’s the confluence age.

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

What should we say “Wah Baba, Wah!”?
Should we say?

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

Let's say "Wah Baba, Wah!"

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

Baba says “Wah my child, Wah!”
and we should say “Wah Baba, Wah!”

दादी जानकी जी

so cold.. see that.. so frosty...

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

Note how lovingly Baba say to us “Wah my Child, Wah!!”
and releases us from asking “Why? Why?”

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

‘Why’ is an English word. Its English, isn’t it?
I am not sure.

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

It stops us from asking Why.

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

Wah, Wah.. Wah Wah..

Baba's children keep saying Wah Baba.. Wah.. and they stop asking 'Why.. Why'.

दादी जानकी जी

16-11-10

So when we start saying “Wah Baba, Wah.. Wah Wah..”, we stop liking and using the word ‘Why’.
